I saw you.
You were lying about who you knew.
And you kick out of habit I guess
You'll have to do.

Now again, we've started out
The way you do whatever she would say.
You know how hard it is
When you're going the wrong way.
We never looked at it that way.
We never had it so bad.

I saw you.
You were lying about who you knew.
And you touch out of habit I guess
You'll have to do.

Now again, we've started out
The way you do whatever she would say.
You know how hard it is
When you're going the wrong way.
We never looked at it that way.
We never had it so bad.

And you took down
What they offered.
Everything down to the wire.
And you're so damn disappointed.
Hassle without any fire.

And you took down
What they offered.
Everything down to the wire.
And you're so damn disappointed.
Castle without any fire.

And you took down
What they offered.
Everything down to the wire.
And you're so damn disappointed.
Castle without any fire
