You're better off not having it all tonight
But how do you know?
You're better off not making sense at all
But how do you know?

You're better off not starving yourself away
But how do you know?
You're better off not proving yourself again
But how do you know?

You never know!

Cos I was there
You were a party to my
Threeway stair
You'd almost try
A circle and a square
You never catch
Me coming up for air
Air

You're better off not making friends again
But how do you know?
You're better off not mistaking claims for good
But how do you know?

You never know!

Cos I was there
You were a party to my
Threeway stair
You'd almost try
A circle and a square
You'd never catch
Me coming up for air
Air

Saving my life again
Cos you were my only friend
Saving my life again
Cos you were my only friend
