You're depending on everyone in sight
To prove you wrong most every night
The catalyts and measured tones
You wish they'd just leave you alone

Doing what you want can not be wrong
Say it, say it again
Doing what you're told can not be wrong
Say it, say it again
You're depending on everyone you see
To shake their heads and disagree
You got only a memory
When you don't care you're so easy to please

Where do you belong?
Haven't you learned anything?
Where do you belong?
Haven't you learned anything?

At all?
