Sunshine paints these open seas so green
Car lines hug the coastline before tea and they stretch as far as I can see on the way home before the need to fall asleep

Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home
Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home

Strangers dreaming hard of a new life
Away, away from dead end ties that bind and I'd believe them
If the clouds don't block the sun outside
Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home
Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home

All in all I know, I know the way
All in all I know, I know the way
All in all I know, I know the way
All in all I know, I know the way

Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home
Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home
Sun in the eyes isn't easy
Making your way home
