I didn't know what was in store
When I walked right through the door
Then I saw you over there
Our blue eyes locked in a stare

I didn't know quite what to say
Sometimes words get in the way and

I remember the night you said
Let's go for a ride I didn't want the night to end
Would we be more than friends?
Yet little did I know before
We would be something more

In black and white I read the screen
Of all your lines and in between and
Then your message on the phone
I saved to hear when I'm all alone

And now I know just what to say
This doesn't happen every day, and

I remember the night you said
Let's go for a ride I didn't want the night to end
Would we be more than friends?
Yet little did I know before
We would be something more

Something more
Something more
Na na na na
Na na na na
Yeah

We would be something more
Something more (Na na na na)
Something more (Na na na na)
Yeah

I know we're both young
But we know what we feel
[Know what we feel]

We know what is false
And we know what is real
(Know what is real)
