so i wake up
begin to cry
cuz you are my sweet lullaby
the memories
the laughter
it only makes my heart hurt

im sittin on the school bus and you come on
you walk down the aisle
and sing along
to the song
and you dont know

that i wake up
begin to cry
cuz you are my sweet lullaby
the memories
the laughter
and every night
before bed
i close my eyes
and look up to heaven
and i wish that just one day you might say...

"every night i wake up
and it kills me to know how beautiful you are girl and i just let you go im sorry for the way i acted to you its not so fair im ashamed of all my actions and truly i do care"
