I got something to fill your nothing and open up your mind.

There's no time for happiness to help you stay alive.

But you keep on lyin' and keep on trying to find a reason why.

You will never see reality and never refuse to die.

The one-eyed apple man is standing on top
Of the one eyed happy man who's burning alive.

Hey! That's my name! That's my game!

We're caught on the wheel of one.

They! They betray! What is made!

We're caught on the wheel of one.

I despise what is mine.

We're caught on the wheel of one.

I don't want to live another way, and I won't forsake what I became.

Will praying ever rescue us? How can we ever be sure?

Can never be forever more?
