

Temptation Within

"Dark Wings"

Why was I one of the chosen ones?

Until the fight I could not see

The magic and the strength of my power

It was beyond my wildest dreams

Dark wings they are descending

See shadows gathering around

One by one they are falling

Every time they try to strike us down

Don't you die on me

You haven't made your peace

Live life, breathe, breathe

Don't you die on me

You haven't made your peace

Live life, breathe, breathe

As they took your soul away

The night turned into the day

Blinded by your rays of life

Give us the strength we needed
