It's just peculiar
How things turned out
Don't need no ABC's
Or no expertise
To see what love's all about
No introductions
Only first names exchanged
No type of seduction
But my love it still came
I'm going through the canyon
These feelings I can't hide
I can't stay away
from you another day
I'll come apart inside
Still I'm going through the canyon
Not knowing what I'll find
I hope that he's still there
I know I wasn't fair
I think I've loved you all that time
I went in with caution
Not expecting to win

Love's hypnotized

Paralyzed

We were more than lovers, we're such good friends

Sad separation

Some other holding me tight

But my inclination

Was to steal away in the night

'Till I'm going through the canyon

These feelings I can't hide

I can't stay away

from you another day

I'll come apart inside

Still I'm going through the canyon

Not knowing what I'll find

I hope that he's still there

I know I wasn't fair

I think I've loved you all that time

[bridge]

I went in with caution

Not expecting to win

Love's hypnotized

Paralyzed

We were more than lovers, we're such good friends

Sad separation

Some other holding me tight

But my inclination
'Till I'm going through the canyon
Still I'm going through the canyon
I know I wasn't fair
I think I've loved you all that time
