no time left now for shame horizon behind me no more pain windswept stars blink and smile another song another mile

(guitar solo)

Your read the line everytime ask me about crime in my mind ask me why another road song funny but i bet you never left home and on a good day i know it aint every day we can part the sea and on a bad day i know it aint every day glory beyond our reach

fourteen seconds til sun rise tired but wiser 4 the time lightning 30 miles away

3,000 more in two days and on a good day i know it aint every day we can part the sea

and on a bad day i know it aint every day glory beyond our reach

repeat 2 times

solo out
