Last-night you died,
I have never cried
This much from a dream,
I was sure it was real.
Last-night I'm sure
My heart missed a beat
At the thought of you
Leaving this place.

It's made me feel
Like something has ended,
Don't let this happen
Again for real,
I can't shift this shadow
From over my shoulders,
Please let me open my eyes.

Last night you died,
I have never tried
This much to awaken
From a dream.

It's made me feel
Like something has ended,
Don't let this happen
Again for real,
I can't shift this shadow
From over my shoulders,
Please let me open my eyes.

Let me go! wake me up now!
