"So Colourful"

You're growing up so fast
Do you remember who I am?
And when we talk again
Will you find the words to say?

I'm losing out on your best years,
I'm never there to wipe your tears,
But you're around the best I know,
It hurts to watch you wave as I go away.

You're changing like the wind
Do you wonder where I am?
You're drawing's on the wall,
You're so colourful.

I'm losing out on your best years,
I'm never there to wipe your tears,
But you're around the best I know,
It hurts to watch you wave as I go away.

I'm pleased to hear you're doing well
You're making smiles and you're the bright spark,
It's been a while but that's OK
'Cos we'll catch up from where we left off
