

8 Days And Waiting "Third Chance"

Visit "Third Chance" on MotoLyrics.com tonight I've realized it's you I've betrayed, sold out and derailed.

all those hopes I've left far behind me, ashed out in the fray, dancing downstream will you hear me sing?

I can, I will, though I've used all my second chances
x4

emotions are cut and run free, snap awake today wings of your smile, blink of your eye is there a chance for me?

dancing downstream in the clearing will you hear me sing?

I can I will though I've used all my second chances.

I am so apologetic for all those days that I left you reeling in dismay.

I'll take this guilt from off of you it's been standing in our way.

I can, I will, though I've used all my second chances
x4

second chances, second chances, second chances.....
