Following blindly with deadpan eyes
Government playthings, no resistance
Human lab rats tested everyday
Poisons in the water, air and earth
Imprisoned willingly, what existence
Been told what to do, how to live your life
Walk the straight and narrow
Get fucked you cunts and die

Their constant surveillance,
Prying eyes, you live in fear
Contemplate the choices
Are you suffering? Enduring?

Losing grip, a false hope, insanity embraces
Mentally castrated, Mentally castrated
Our fate is in our own hands no one else's
Don't ever let anyone tell us
You can't! You won't! You never will!
Forced to learn what they want you to believe
Step outside of the square
And use your fucking head

Slavery, captive in this world of judgement
Prejudice, pre-conceived opinions of liars
Don't give in to tergiversation
Turncoats never make a nation
Desperate to prove your worth to others
Who gives a fuck what people think
Be yourself, just be yourself!
