i be talkin this shit like im gonna change the rap game but these motherfuckers dont even know my name everyone may think my shit all sounds the same but forreal if u been thru some of the shit ive been thru u would act, walk, talk, and think the same way i do u gotta understand that im tired of having a lack of funds reaching down into my pockets and pullin out a wad of ones this world gets more matierialistic with every day and all u hang on every word that i say, so y would i play im not here to fancy yal out and impress a town i dont need to worry about that i got bigger things to worry about now all im lookin for in this world is a change to make me feel better im tired of hustlin and bustlin and strugglin all that shit is getting old and making me cold
