you've come across the age you gotta pick your fate from what you want to be and what your supposed to be your parents tell you how you want to make them proud but they cannot see what you want to be

oh yeah, oh yeah
I wanna be like me
I'm gonna be like me

well yeah they raised me well thats something I will tell they gave me everything but thats not me!! cause now I've got my dreams and it always seems there out to knock em down just let me be!!

and now my situation
all full of aggrevation a change from what you were to what your now friendships and complications love in the wrong directions but I guess I will pull it off some how!!
