well the report card it came to me it said, return address Lenape Valley I said "oh no this can't be happening now" so I opened it up and I said "Oh Shit" then my mom walked in and she said "Whats this" well mom I didn't do so good well your damn right you did pretty bad, she said I know do ya think I'm glad no I don't, but I'm pissed off just wait till your father gets home now get you ass to your room then dad busted in and said these couple of words.....

hey young man
whats going on well, well dad I had a little problem well get your ass in line of else I will.....

on report card day
you don't have to say that you gave it your all cause that how life is your never good enough till you watch it fall well report cards they come and go and you never know
yeah you never know.....
