to be the one to watch your life slip away, break away just tell yourself its all its all gonna be okay when your girlfriends gone and your friends are fighting your social life is uninviting theres no body that you know

Cause your all alone you've got no one to call

Now your on your own and you feel so small

Well you don't got to fight you don't have to beg when their at your door knock, knock, knocking at your door just push it all away just push, push it all away and you wont have to say Say!!
