Why can't anything be
The way it is on my TV
I don't know what is wrong
I only want what I see
You and I should get along
Please don't take this wrong
I'm tired of being alone
And I think that you are the one
If I had half a chance
I'd tell you how I feel
If I could make this right
If this was even real
But I'm too young to grow-up
You say to old to stay young
I'm tired of being alone but
I don't think you are the one
I'm not going to change
And I realize that it's not meant to be
As days pass so do my feelings
It's not always easy to see
I'm ready to move on
I can make it on my own
If that's not alright with you
That's okay 'cause it's alright with me
