Time is money You'll do what for a penny You pay for everything Why not for loving?

It's complicated to live Always need money We continue to belive That the eagle on the quarters still pretty The rich kept their dollars They kept their gold When we will burn their dollar The rpice is gonna be right into the gold

Time is money You'll do what for a penny You pay for everything Why not for loving?

Life is a game That you pay for live The other players do the same Even if they forgive Pay for crime

Pay for kill You'll die for a dime Oh yes you will

Time is money You'll do what for a penny You pay for everything Why not for loving?

If you win a lottery You'll become rich You will win the hipocrisy That's all you'll reach You want to know How is the reality I don't think so Cause it's too ugly

Time is money
You'll do what for a penny
You pay for everything
Why not for loving?
Why not for dreaming?
Why not for money?
Why not for living?
Why not for me?
