I got to thinkin' about my baby last night
She's the one that used to hold me tight
But lately days it just don't seem to be working out I want to take her for a ride in my '69 stang hair flowing back crusing down the lane
come on baby, shake it for me one last time (shake it for me one last time)

I want to take her down to old Bean's Eddy show her off to Frank and Freddy let em all know I still got what it takes I race on down,
looking for some heat I jump on the keys still looking for a beat
come on baby, shake it for me one last time
(shake it for me one last time)

(Inst.)
Well....
I think about the time that has been wasted when she's got the curves in all the right places jump in baby, let's go for a ride I'm gonna show you the town with a little bit of style maybe we can sneak off and be alone for awhile
come on baby, shake it for me one last time
(shake it for me one last time)

Come on baby
shake it for me one last time
