Stand back this is gonna be good
Deep in the woods
Have you seen
The full moon's out and the change it brings inside of me?
We're gonna get our due
We're howling at the moon
We are the lupis lycan kind
We are an old bloodline
We are the bloodline
Those who dare walk woods alone should know
That there is truth
To the stories of the youth
It keeps them out of hungry hands
From the beasts that hunt these lands on shadowed eves

Tavern owners know
They told you not to go
That there are nights
When you draw those curtains tight
Keep the fire burning bright
And heed that gypsy woman's words:
"Even a man who is pure at heart
And says his prayers by night
May become a wolf when the wolf's bane blooms
And the autumn moon is bright"
When frost forms on the fields
We'll sense your heat through chill
We're moving in to kill
You know we will.
