Tommy Lee James/Liz Hengber)

The Arizona sun looks like a ruby in the sky And when the desert wind blows like a friend it's enough to make you high I am so far away from Eastern Standard time
But I miss you babe
I hope you're doing fine

Well I found a job it's nothing much but at least it pays the rent
The boss is nice but his wife but she only works weekends
How are things in Charleston is there someone in your life
Guess I should ask
I hope you're doing fine

We were making plans together not so long ago Thought we could see forever from that Carolina Coast
But things change everything changes

Now the moon is up and the stars are out yeah it's quite a sight to see It's times like this oh how I wish you were still next to me
Maybe our paths baby will cross somewhere down the line Who's to say
I just hope you're doing fine
I miss you so
I hope you're doing fine
That's all for now
I hope you're doing fine
