Let me take a minute to tell you
I don't think that there's anything I wouldn't do
She's the one but I don't think I can tell her
When she's with him I don't even want to be there
Every time I see her walking in the hallway
I want to tell her exactly how it could be
I want to tell her that she's the one
I'd listen to her stories even when they bore me
Now, I don't want to be alone
I don't want to hear the phone ring
With anyone else's call
She's gone
I should be moving on
I don't know what is wrong with me
I can't believe she's gone

I'm climbing walls everything is useless
No matter what I do nothing's really worth this What's lost I will probably never find
She leaves me, it happens like this every time
Can't she see he's a fucking ass-hole
Everything about him makes my fucking skin crawl
When he's gone please don't bother to call
I'll be here waiting for another fall
Everything we've done to make it last
Everything we've done is stuck in the past
Everything we've done to make it last
Everything we've done is stuck in the past
