take me to the bottom of your mind does it really have to be like this?
i just dont beleive your magic life can be fantastic if we try just for a day never call me when am down never look for the key its all in your mind try and find a better you and slip away with the ghosts of red love because your mind will never be free i have to go

i just might stay
fancy meeting on a better day my lovely beverely green?

i saw some things the other day and boy where they crazy telling me to get a life i couldnt even feel the noise anymore tell me to go i just dont mind tell me to go things going on upon your brain the little black cat sits on it mat

looking into the window of your soul

i have to go
i just might stay
my lovely beverely green?

when will you be free?
