Always the problem, I speak before I think
I think I need another drink (drink)
I have an answer for everything you say
A perfect time to run away
I won't apologize, or ever change
I'll drink 'till I turn blue, and live another day
Violent reactions the cause of my abuse
I try to stop but it's no use

A simple argument turns ugly when I'm drunk
I'm not the same man you once loved
I won't apologize or ever change
I'll drink 'till I turn blue and live another day
Live another day, another day, another day
I'll drink 'till I turn blue and live another day
