Don't wanna go home and be unhappy
Don't wanna go to where everybody's happy
But if I didn't go I know I would be lying
Why should I go back to where everybody's crying

Everybody's gonna see
Everybody's wondering
Everybody's gonna bash my $20 Christmas
Try to keep your mouth closed
Cross your fingers
Cross your toes
Everybody's gonna bash my $20 Christmas

Strip me of my pride
A candle lit dinner
What's the deal?
So I lied
You'll never be a winner
And though I stand alone
I feel you close beside me
But I won't go back home
I know I would be lying
It's not my fault
