If she says I caused her hurt, you can take her at her word
And know she's speaking from her heart
And when she talks about the pain
If she says that I'm to blame, you can bet I did my part
If she says I didn't lift a hand, when she walked away
It's true, I didn't make her stay chorus
But she can't say I didn't cry, can't say she didn't know
How it tore me up inside, how it hurt to watch her go
There's a million things that she might say that I cannot deny
But she can't look me in the eye, and say I didn't cry
If you haven't heard by now, how much I let her down
When you do, you can sure believe
That I made some mistakes but that don't take away
Just how much she means to me
She can say I gave her every reason to leave
But there's one thing she can't say about me
