It was abrupt
I remember the day clearly
Dropped my head,
Walked until nothing I knew was near me
Forged ahead/ to make a new way
Looking to fill a void, no reason to stay

Been here a while,
Waiting my heart's mending
To reflect, a life that
I've come to regret/ and yet
What I thought wasn't right is the love that I
Never thought would be mine

Unresolved,
Left some loose ends behind me
Thought I knew,
Some things I just accepted blindly
Need to go back, miss what we had
Marking our days ahead, so many plans

I've come to find,
Made a mistake in leaving
You alone,
Please show me a way to return back home

Where my heart confides and my secrets lie
Revealed in your eyes

Where can I find you to stand beside you?
Wonder how that would be
And if when I call you fail to answer
What's to become of me?

How do I get back to you?
Which road would lead to the truth?
Show me how to get back to you
Show me how to get back to you
Show me how to get back to you
Tell me what I need to do (anticipating)

Gotta find my way
I just wanna come home
I've been gone too long
I just wanna come home

Where can I find you to stand beside you?
Wonder how that would be
And if when I call you fail to answer
What's to become of me?

How do I get back to you?
Which road would lead to the truth?

Show me how to get back to you
Show me how to get back to you
Show me how to get back to you
Tell me what I need to do

Gotta find my way
I just wanna come home
I've been gone too long
I just wanna come home
