im in a bodybag
im being forgotten here on this cold table im waiting for ressurection but a zipper pull assures im dead

im wrapped in skin and lies you told me you whispered them like lullabies while i saw the mirror crushing me you whispered my last word

im waiting for ressurection

reasons for death

have fun with this question toy with the minds that determine my fate am i to be remembered, buried, burned or tossed.
you twist the question on your tongue this is not my choice my final wish was not foe me to die... it was yours...
