"Back To Me"

If you would just come back to me,
I would be so good
I'll put your trust back in me,
The least I think you should
We'll call it my pathology, so I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be, if I could change I would See it on my face

All I wanted was a friend, to look in me to comprehend
All I wanted was to fly, how could you sit and watch me die?
All I wanted was you there, your cruelty was my despair
You just killed me so, the story goes

Once upon a time there was a girl who loved me more then life itself.
By the duck pond she said
Carve our names into the bark, we climbed the tree
I slipped and fell behind
And now I'm sorry,

If you would just come back to me back to me
I would be so good,
I put your trust back in me,
The least I think you should,
We'll call it my pathology,
So I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be, if I could change I would
See it on my face,

See it on my face,

All reminds me of your name, we sought fortune through the rain
Everyday and everyplace, everywhere I kissed your face
All the sacrifice in vain, how could you put all the blame upon me that's no fair, so the story goes

Once upon a time we had the moon we had the stars
we were divine,
Upon my shoudler, she cried
Now she hides the faith she fears
She throws herself before her bed of lies She'll be sorry

If you would just come back to me
I would be so good
I'll put your trust back in me,
the least I think you should
We'll call it my pathology, so I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be, if I could change I would
See it on my face

If you would just come back to me
I would be so good
I'll put your trust back in me,
the least I think you should
We'll call it my pathology, so I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be, if I could change I would

If you would just come back to me
If you would just come back to me
If you would just come back to me

I see it on my face

Its all right
Its all right
Its all right
