What's wrong with me, I hear her say
Forget everything, what it means to me
I'm not alive, that's what she means
I hate to disappoint her, I only need some room to breathe

What's wrong with me, what's wrong with you
Must we compete, who speaks the truth
You can have it all, if it serves you well
As long as I leave with myself

I'm wide awake, I was dead before today
If you make it till tomorrow, see it works both ways
I will not try to apologize
For what I know is right

Another chance wrapped up again
Makes it difficult for you to comprehend
Just give it time, time's all we've had
I loved you as a child, now I must leave as a man

I'm wide awake, I was dead before today
If you make it till tomorrow, see it works both ways
I will not try to apologize
For what I know is right

It's so easy to be near me
When all I've said, gets lost between
No, I'm drown on what you mean

It's so easy to be near me
Maybe I should have, yes I can
You know exactly who I'm 'Cause I shouldn't fake this
The things I mistaken of that I need to set
Away that will walk away with me
Yes follow me

What's wrong with me, what's wrong with you
Must we compete, who speaks the truth
You can have it all, if it serves you well
As long as I live with myself

I'm wide awake, I was dead before today
If you make it till tomorrow, see it works both ways
I will not try to apologize
For what I know is right

Call up, some day
That you may still be here
Call up, some day
That you need to find in me
