What if I told you
That you've got the most beautiful eyes I have ever seen, whoa
I just wanna hold you
But you're never around I feel so in between
I can't stop thinking of you
You weigh so heavy on my mind each and every day, whoa
And if I told you that I loved you
Well I can't help but wonder what you'd say

I just wish that I could read your mind
Because then I could tell
Exactly what you're thinking all the time
Words are hard to find
For what I'm feeling
So I guess I'll just pretend I'm doing fine
Until you're all mine

I wish that I could taste you
From the inside out and set your heart on fire, whoa
I never wanna waste you
You are far too precious simply to retire, whoa whoa
whoa
And oh how I hate it
You're so far away there's nothing I can do, whoa
But I'm so captivate
I'm burning inside to be with you

I just wish that I could read your mind
Because then I could tell
Exactly what you're thinking all the time
Words are hard to find
For what I'm feeling
So I guess I'll just pretend I'm doing fine
Until you're all mine

I feel you're so above me
What on earth could you see in a guy like me, whoa
But I think that you could love me
So right here by your side is where I'll always be Wishing I could read your mind

Because then I could tell
Exactly what you're thinking all the time
Words are hard to find
For what I'm feeling
So I guess I'll just pretend I'm doing fine
Until you're all mine
