And I don't wanna know
Where you go
Or the people you have known
And you try not to smile
When I make you happy and you
Know that you want me too
But all of the time I'm getting so confused because...

You
Are the girl
Of my dreams
And you know that I
Try to keep my composure
But you blow it for me
Never bore me
And I want you to come to my world
To my world

You always talk about
The things I don't wanna hear
But I don't care
At least you're here
And you always make me feel
Like a ten year old boy on the playground
That's how I know it's real
But all of the time I'm getting so confused because...

You
Are the girl
Of my dreams
And you know that I
Try to keep my composure
But you blow it for me
Never bore me
And I want you to come to my world
To my world
To my world
To my world
To my world
