Too Rolling Stoned
by Robin Trower

Oh, a stitch in time
Just about save me
From goin' through the same old moves
These ???? of mine
Keep on comin'
And goin' through the same old grooves

That stone keeps on rollin'
Bringin' me some real bad news
Takers get the honey
Givers sing the blues

Too many cooks, yeah
Can spoil such a good thing
Ain't it funny
A fool and his money
Always seem to find Themselves someone who needs a friend

That stone keeps on rollin'
Bringin' me some real bad news
Takers get the honey
Givers sing the blues

If you'll be so kind not to wake me,
I think I'll just sit this one out...

Too rolling stoned...
Too rolling stoned...
Too rolling stoned...
Too rolling stoned...
Too rolling stoned...
