Somebody oughta tell that girl
She's livin' in a dreamers world
That boy's as gone as gone can be

But it won't be me
No, it won't be me

Somebody oughta set her straight
She oughta give up the wait
He'll never give up being free

But it won't be me
No, it won't be me

CHORUS

To see her fall apart would be more than I could bear
I'm just too close to that girl in the mirror there

Somebody oughta let her know
She's got to let him go
It's time to face reality

But it won't be me
No, it won't be me

To see her fall apart would be more than I could bear
I'm just too close to that girl in the mirror there

Somebody oughta let her know
She's got to let him go
It's time to face reality

TAG

Well it won't be "T" No, it won't be me.....
