Fireworks exploding, in a 21 gun salute
Fireworks exploding
Angels are crying through a Crystal Irish flute
Angels are crying
Champagne is spilling
Champagne is spilled
As if a million flowers had suddenly been killed
As if a million flowers
Dearly Beloved, we are gathered here today
Dearly Beloved
We have come together for the love that got away
The love that got away
Naked on a staircase that we could never build
As if a million flowers had suddenly been killed
As if a million flowers (4x)
Roulette, roulette place your bet
Roulette, roulette cigarette
As if a million flowers
As if a million flowers and the last time
