(Verse)

Pull out the juicy pies and see me right now
I bet you didn't think that I would remember how I bet you thought I'd miss it since the field they plowed
And the weeds covered up the sun

(Chorus)

Hey well ain't it your birthday?
Then why aren't you smiling?
I just drove 250 miles
In the middle of the night
On an empty tank
Dodging deer along the way
Onto Central Virginia, moonlight Broadway
Brought to you by this small town
I always thought I could come home to
Oh well I guess I was wrong

Josh Hedley!

(Verse)

Why in the world are you blocking the doorway?
I wanna come inside and sing happy birthday
Say hi to your mama, eat a piece of cake
And tell your little brother dirty jokes

(Verse)

I wanna lie to everybody that the star I am
The big city life that I'm livin'
All of the money that they're tryin to give me
Just to sign a couple compact disks

(Chorus)

Hey well ain't it your birthday?
Then why aren't you smiling?
I just drove 250 miles
In the middle of the night
On an empty tank
Dodging deer along the way
Onto Central Virginia, moonlight Broadway
Brought to you by this small town

I always thought I could come home to
Oh well I guess I was wrong

(Verse)

is it one of those times when you think I should back down?
Just let it go instead of sliding my foot down
Bow my head at the feet of the queen
Instead of taking out a prison guard

(Verse)

Or deceiving myself and chucking out my friends
It doesn't seem like a very good way to live
Seems kinda lucky, trying too hard to win
But you're losing yourself in the game

(Chorus)

Hey well ain't it your birthday?
Then why aren't you smiling?
I just drove 250 miles
In the middle of the night
On an empty tank
Dodging deer along the way
Onto Central Virginia, moonlight Broadway
Brought to you by this small town
I always thought I could come home to
Oh well I guess I was wrong
