Silver and snow
don't let it go
like the ideas lost inside your brain coalescing and depressing

don't let it go
like the first time you said goodbye without reason whispering backwards and the physician is running at your side and the magician is sitting at your side and the physician is dying at your side while the magician is dying at your side

don't let it go
like the ideas
lost inside your brain

without reason ain't the reason

and the physician is dying at your side

no if it can't seem right no if it don't seem right

like the first time you sailed away into the darkness, stay

don't you ever
forever
forever
