"Tic Tac"

It's another second of this life,
my life that is killing me, abandoning me.

Maybe it got tired of waiting for me to do something,
expecting me to do something!

(tic tac tic tac)
(tic tac tic tac)

I wonder if I feel tired,
I feel weird, bored, I'm surely exhausted.

I'm finally here,
Am I not supposed to be some steps ahead from where
I am, at this moment?
Am I losing things as I grow?
Am I missing cool details as I go?
Open the window of this train!
Tell the rails not to make such noise!
I need to hear a wise voice if I walk out of here
I need to hear a wise voice
