Take it as it comes girl.

You gotta understand.

Take it on the run girl.

The world's at your command, Oh.

I know it's a difficult thing

when the one you love makes you cry.

I know if the phone doesn't ring

it is keeping you waiting every night.

So take it as it comes, girl.

Don't let him bring you down, yeah.

Keep your motor runnin'.

You know you own this town, yeah.

Sometimes it's easy to worry

when love is in the lost and found.

Take it as it comes, girl.

Whoa, you'll make it through no doubt.

It'll all come around.

Yeah, yeah. Oh no. Take it baby.

I know it's a difficult thing

when the one you love says goodbye.

Seems like the world's always changing.

Gotta learn how to take it all in your stride.

So take it as it comes, girl.

You gotta try again, yeah.

Let me be the one, girl.

I'll help you over him, yeah.

Sometimes it's easy to worry.

There's nothing to worry about.

Take it as it comes, girl.

Yeah, we'll make it through no doubt.

It'll all come around.

Take my hand. Whoa, yeah.

It should all come around.

Take it as it comes, girl.

You gotta try again, yeah.

Let me be the one girl.

I'll help you over him
