Everyday you see me walk away,
I ain't got no more reason to stay,
Say goodbye and I'll be on my way,
I'm out of your business, out of your business.

Day and night I leave it all behind,
'Cause I got my own piece of mind
And there's nothing that can keep me by
I'm out of your business, out of your business.

I can't deal your love, no more,
'Cause I can't take it anymore,
I can't deal your love, no more,
I'm out of your business, out of your business.
I can't deal your love, no more,
'Cause I can't take it anymore,
I can't deal your love, no more,
I'm out of your business, out of your business.
Love, love, love,
I'm out of your business.
Love, love, love,
Out of your business, love.

Everyday you see me walk away
But then I get there's nothing else to say.
Tomorrow's gotta be a brighter day
I'm out of your business, out of your business.

Day and night I leave it all behind
'Cause I got my own piece of mind
And there's nothing that can keep me by
I'm out of your business, out of your business.

Out of your, out of your,
Out of your, out of your,
Out of your, out of your,
Out of your business, love.
Out of your, out of your,
Out of your, out of your,
Out of your, out of your,
Out of your business, love.

I can't deal your love, no more,
'Cause I can't take it anymore,
I can't deal your love, no more,
I'm out of your business, out of your business.
I can't deal your love, no more,
'Cause I can't take it anymore,
I can't deal your love, no more,
I'm out of your business, out of your business.
Love, love, love,
I'm out of your business.
Love, love, love,
Out of your business, love.
