In your eyes...
I see your passion going high
Tell me why...
You hide yourself away?

In your heart...
You know that's all I'm waiting for
It's to stay with you
Forever and a day

Love is something more
Than simple words cannot to be
Simple ways which cannot show
This love I know that's real

Love is something more
Than simple words cannot to say
Simple words...
Forever and a day

Now I'm asking...
To stay with me forever
(Stay it)
This is a promise to keep

Now I'm asking...
To loving me forever
(Stay it)
Another promise to keep

In your smile...
The fox behind your gentle touch
Only I...
Should like this as pleasure

No one knows...
About the nights I love so much
No one knows you're mine
Forever and a day
