Dear mother can you heard me now ,do you
Dear mother can you cry for first time

I know my world is not your dream
I know my dream is not a world for you

So I want to excuse myself
So I want but IÂ'm not change ,IÂ'm not change

Why do words why you turn around
Why IÂ'm soft just for on moment
Why do words why you turn around
Why I cry just for on moment

Maybe I want to see the true ,I will

Maybe IÂ'm blind to look into your eyes

I know my world is not your dream
I know my dream is not a world for you

So I want to excuse myself
So I want but IÂ'm not change ,IÂ'm not change

Why do words why you turn around
Why IÂ'm soft just for on moment
Why do words why you turn around
Why I cry just for on moment
