Spoken Intro:}

"There's a province up in Canada that's right next door to ours.

It's called Saskatchewan. And, uh, in that province there's a small town, uh, where nothing much ever happens, called

Saskatoon. This is a tune about that town. This is called 'Runnin' Back To Saskatoon'."

I been hangin' around gas stations

I been learnin' 'bout tires

I been talkin' to grease monkeys

I been workin' on cars

Moose Jaw, Broadview, Moosomin too

Runnin' back to Saskatoon

Red Deer, Terrace and a Medicine Hat

Sing another prairie tune

Sing another prairie tune

I been hangin' around libraries

I been learnin' 'bout books

I been talkin' to playwrighters

I been workin' on words, phrases

I been hangin' around hospitals

I been learnin' 'bout dyin'

I been talkin' to heart doctors

I been workin' on disease

This spirit is home grown

Don't come from Hong Kong

This spirit is home grown

Don't come from Hong Kong

I been hangin' around grain elevators

I been learnin' 'bout food

I been talkin' to soil farmers

I been workin' on land

I been hangin' around camera stores
I been learnin' 'bout sight
I been talkin' to film makers
I been workin' on eyes
