verse:

You said that you'd come back around, so i'm waiting here for you
It feels like things are different now, don't know what false or what's true, So I take myself somewhere far, somewhere new
I can't feel you and what am I suppose to do?
I won't look back on things that don't look my way cause time has made me change, it won't let me stay why should I care when you absolutely never did, don't you know that love it works both ways?

bridge:

youuuu can go, go, go
and leave meeeee here alone, lone, lone

chorus:

i'm ridin' solo
i'm ridin' solo, baby
i'm ridin' soloooo

verse:

is it crazy that I almost thought I loved myself less than I had loved you,
does it really matter what is sitting in my cup
