I know that every morning you go
Thumbing through the personal want ads
You grab the latest copy, a cup of coffee
And settle in for a good laugh
I've been trying to catch your eye but I'm so shy
I'm hoping and praying that
Today's edition is gonna catch your attention
Cause there's a
Chorus: Single white female
Looking for that special lover
To put it in a nutshell
A one woman man who doesn't want no other
Oh, you never can tell
She just might be your dream come true
A single white female is looking for a man like you
Yeah, I'm a little nervous
I'm not sure if
I should have put it in writing
It might have been a little reckless, a little desperate
But I think I did the right thing
I couldn't go on living, keep it hidden

So I'm telling you everything
It's my confession I hope you get the message
There's a
Chorus: A single white female
Looking for that special lover
To put it in a nutshell
A one woman man who doesn't want no other
Oh, you never can tell
She just might be your dream come true
A single white female
Is looking for a man like you
It's my confession I hope you get the message
Chorus: A single white female
Looking for that special lover
To put in in a nutshell
A one woman man who doesn't want no other
Oh, you never can tell
She just might be your dream come true
A single white female
Is looking for a man like you
Looking for a man like you
Looking for a man like you
