I'm sick of all this crap that you've been giving me
lately,
I'm thinkin' about runnin' now no one can save me.
If I had one wish it would be to let you go.
This time I'm sober I'm walking out (walkin' out) letting
you know.

Runaway runaway don't try to find me
I'm lost and I'm broken but I'm looking for you.
Runaway runaway don't even mind me
I hold you in my heart cause I know I'm through,
I know I'm through I'm gone.

I'm punked out all alone standing without you.
Cut myself off, now I've no one to turn to.
If I had one wish it would be to let you go.
This time I'm sober I'm walking out (walkin' out) letting
you know.

Runaway runaway don't try to find me
I'm lost and I'm broken but I'm looking for you.
Runaway runaway don't even mind me
I hold you in my heart cause I know I'm through,
I know I'm through I'm gone.

Runaway, I'm running away. Runaway.

Runaway runaway don't try to find me
I'm lost and I'm broken but I'm looking for you.
Runaway runaway don't even mind me
I hold you in my heart cause I know I'm through,
I know I'm through I'm gone
