Walk with me right down the street.
I know where you live, you've always me.
When I come back will she still be as shy?
She's always had me wondrin' even God wonders why.

Let's go!

The last day was the first day that she said hi to me,
with my name attached, name attached.
So I figured "what the heck, I'll call her up."
She didn't answer, she didn't call me back.
I don't really know what to do.
I don't understand, I'm so confused.

I never want to go, you never want to stay.
Everytime I see you, you act as if you've changed your mind.
You always want to lead me on with your letters.
I've figured it out though, you've got some powers.
You've got some, I know.
I know.

And then one day I came across her in her yard.
She didn't wave, didn't wave.
So I figured "what the heck, I'll give her up."
She didn't call me back, she didn't even write.
I don't really know what to do.
I don't understand, I'm so confused.

I never want to go, you never want to stay.
Everytime I see you, you act as if you've changed your mind.
You always want to lead me on with your letters.
I've figured it out though, you've got some powers.
You've got some, I know.

Here we go!

I never stop thinking what it would be like.
To hold you in my arms, I know, you would feel safe.
You'd laugh, but instead you..

Never want to go, you never want to stay.
Everytime I see you, you act as if you've changed your mind.
You always want to lead me on with your letters.
I've figured it out though, you've got some powers.
You've got some, I know.
I know
