I know a girl with a glow in her eye.
She makes me shy, she don't know.
When I'm with her I say to myself, "why can't I get this out?"
You need to know.

To you I'll say "I can't help this anymore.
I fall deeper in love.
Can't you see that it's your eyes that capture me?"

Those nights we spent together we looked at the stars.
You said you'd never seen anything as beautiful.
She said.

Those nights we spent together we looked at the stars.
You said you'd never seen anything as beautiful.
The truth is you are the only thing as beautiful.
I'll show you so much more.
I'll show you everything that I know.

To you I'll say "I can't help this anymore.
I fall deeper in love.
Can't you see that it's your eyes that capture me?"

I know a girl with a glow in her eye.
She makes me cry, she don't know
